

CELEBRATE INDEPENDENCE DAY AT THE NEW-YORK HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Wear red, white & blue for free admission July 4th from 10AM–5PM

🦋 Trivia buffs, have your buzzers at the ready! At 2PM, the “Don’t Know Much About History” author Kenneth C. Davis will host his fun-filled American Revolution Quiz Show.

🦋 At 1 & 3PM, master storyteller Jonathan Kruk (below) of the Hudson River Ramblers will sing about the pivotal role the Hudson River played in the War for Independence.

🦋 All day meet George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, and the Marquis de Lafayette as professional historical reenactors will interact with visitors, telling them of times past. 10AM-5PM.

🦋 If Elected: The Game of American Politics. Compare current-day election material to funny, provocative campaign material from past presidential elections. Exhibition includes an “I Like Ike” dress, lapel buttons, ribbons, flags, whiskey bottles, neckties, & board games.

RED, WHITE AND BLUE SALE
10% OFF REGULAR PRICED MERCHANDISE FOR VISITORS SHOWING THE COLORS, 20% FOR MEMBERS; PLUS ADDITIONAL SPECIALS!

New-York | Making
Historical | History
Society | Matter

170 Central Park West at 77th Street
(212) 873-3400 nyhistory.org